Of the Heauens, Starres, and Planets.

Heauen in ẏ Mother of tongues is called Schamaiim: which word (as ſome affirme) is compounded of Scham ſignifying There or In that place, and Maiim, waters. Whereupon they conclude, that Heauen is nothing but Aquæ conſolidatæ, waters firmely compacted together, as it were Chriſtall.

The

The Talmudiſts alledge that it is either compoun the verbe Schaan ſignifying (in Hithpael) to wonder, Maiim, becauſe men are drawne into exceeding admir conſidering the workmanſhip of the Heauens: Or of and Maiim fire and water. And thereupon Rabbi Be the beginning of Paraſch, writeth after this manner: Heauens (ſaith he) were created in the beginning, and called ſhamaiim, becauſe they are Eſch & Maiim, Fire and ter. And in Bereſchith Rabba, it is thus read, The He are ſo called, becauſe men wonder at them ſaying: Of wh they made? They are made of fire, they are made of wa this is a thing to be admired.

Yet true it is, that many excellent Gramarians ſupp that the Hebrew word is neither diriuatiue, nor compo but priuatiue, of which opinion is that famous Hebr Valentine Schindler. And Fagius a great Author in tongue (vpon the firſt chapter of Geneſis) writeth th Heneſra proueth out of the Iſmaelitiſh tongue (which very great affinitie with the Hebrew) that Schama ſign nothing elſe, but High or Aboue.

But howſoeuer it be, or whatſoeuer is the true Ety gie of that word, this we are ſure of, that Heauen in Scripture is threefold. 2 Corinth. 12.2.

1 Aerie where the Fowles are. Gen. 2.28.
2 Starry, where the Starres are. Gen. 1.17.
3 Glorious, where ſoules are, and it is called heauen of Heauens, 1. King. 1.27. and of Philoſophers pyræum.

The middlemoſt of which three called the Firmament, that which containeth all thoſe beautifull and bright ſhin lights, created by the Almighty Elohim, God in three perſ vpon the fourth day of the Creation. Gen. 1.14 &c.

Which Lights (whether moued in their ſeuerall ſph according to the generall opinion receiued from reuerend tiquity: or elſe moued as Fiſhes in the[illegible]a, or Fowles
